JZ: But in reality, I don't think something happened. Did something happen?

V: No, dad. Nothing new.

JZ: No, uh...just let me clear something up. I mean, it was really...okay. Meisy should be coming back but...because, I mean, I don't understand. There is nothing about—nothing anymore about...we know there is nothing of anything. Uh...is that why you understood she left?

V: Well, it was in a—it was in a conversation that we were discussing that well—well, my grandfather said, "Well, leave." And well, she also said, "Well, yes, right?"

JZ: Uh-hum.

V: And, in addition, she has to do the other thing that she's doing over there which is--

JZ: [OV] Of course. Of course. Of course.

V: --fi—finding the--the funds and--

JZ: [OV] Of course. Uh-hum.

V: That was the goal, to do that and that's all but--

JZ says Pilar should start working on the public relations firm. JZ tells V about the motions filed by Trey and says he didn't see one for change of venue. JZ asks for F and greets F.

JZ tells F that he is aware there are many problems but they can't speak about them. JZ asks F what is going on. F says he's deactivating all the auto-pays and working on what they spoke about the previous day. They talk about retainer fees for Savory [PH], Porter and the Texas Medical Board. JZ tells F to jot down any other attorney that F comes across. They agree to talk later.
